The Background

The Washington DC Veterans Affairs Medical Center operates six Community-Based Outpatient Clinics (CBOC) with locations in the Southeast region of the District of Columbia; Ft. Belvoir, Virginia; and several cities in Maryland including Camp Springs, Charlotte Hall, Gaithersburg and Lexington Park. The Washington DC Veterans Affairs Medical Center provides comprehensive health care and services to 123,335 eligible Veterans living in areas of the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia. In addition, the medical center operates two other facilities including a 120-bed Community Living Center which offers eligible Veterans geriatric and extended care, and a 24/7 VA Community Resource and Referral Center located in Northeast Washington, DC which offers social work services and community resource information to assist Veterans with housing, employment and averting homelessness.

The Mission

To respect and serve our nation's Veterans by honoring them with safe, quality health care in an environment that fosters compassion, commitment and service.

Expanding Care in Southern Maryland

The Washington DC Veterans Affairs Medical Center understands the unique health care needs of Veterans. The dedicated team of professionals is committed to providing Veterans with VA health care closer to their homes.

Beginning December 2, 2019, the Lexington Park CBOC will be open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. to provide a variety of medical services and community resources to Veterans.

The 8,000 square foot clinic will offer "closer to home" access to VA health care for 15,335 Veterans enrolled for care in the Tri-County area of Southern Maryland including Charles, Calvert and St. Mary's.
